Reading and Explanation of unit #03 (page 21)

Near the palace was a large lake. One day in the hot weather, the elephant king came here with his herd to drink water. The whole herd walked all over the floor of the palace. They killed many of the mice. The mice were very sad. They held a meeting. 'These elephants will kill us all' they cried 'What shall we do'?

Some of the mice went to the elephants. They said friends; we live under the palace floors. If you walk over the floors on the way to the lake, you will kill us all.

Please go along another path. One day we may help you'.

The elephant king and his herd listened to the mice and agreed to use another path. One day the elephant king and his herd were trapped in the forest by some hunters. They were tied up by ropes. Luckily, one of the elephants escaped the trap. He ran through the forest and called the mice. Hundreds of them came to help the elephants. They bit through the ropes, and set the elephants free.

The elephants thanked the mice, and they remembered the old saying: 'Make friends, always make friends, however strong or weak.
